

PRÉMIO NACIONAL DE BIOÉTICA 2011

PROF. H. TRISTRAM ENGELHARDT, JR

H. Tristram Engelhardt, Jr., holds an M.D. with honors from Tulane University School of Medicine (1972) and a B.A. (1963) and a Ph.D. (1969) from the University of Texas at Austin. In 2005 he received a doctor honoris causa from the University of Medicine and Pharmacy “Gr. T. Popa”, Iași, Romania, and in 2011 he received a doctor honoris causa from the “1 Decembrie 1918” University of Alba Iulia, Romania. He was a Fulbright Graduate Fellow at Bonn University, German (1969-1970), a Fellow at the Institute for Advanced Study in West Berlin, Germany (1988-1989), a Visiting Scholar at the Internationale Akademie für Philosophie im Fürstentum Liechtenstein (fall 1997), and a Visiting Scholar at Liberty Fund, Indianapolis, Indiana (spring 1998).

Currently, Dr. Engelhardt is Professor in the Department of Philosophy, Rice University, and Professor Emeritus in the Department of Medicine and in the Department of Community Medicine, Baylor College of Medicine. He has held appointments at Rice and Baylor since January, 1983, after leaving Georgetown University, where he was the Rosemary Kennedy Professor of Philosophy of Medicine. Dr. Engelhardt is senior editor of the Journal of Medicine and Philosophy, Christian Bioethics, the Philosophy and Medicine book series with over one hundred ten volumes in print, and the book series Philosophical Studies in Contemporary Culture. He has authored over three hundred sixty articles and chapters of books in addition to over one hundred twenty book reviews and other publications. His work ranges from Continental philosophy and the history of medicine to the philosophy of medicine and bioethics. There have been more than one hundred fifty reprintings or translations of his publications. He has also co-edited over thirty volumes and has lectured widely throughout the world.

His books include Bioethics and Secular Humanism: The Search for a Common Morality (Philadelphia: Trinity Press International, 1991), and the second, thoroughly revised edition of The Foundations of Bioethics (New York Oxford, 1996), which has been translated into Chinese, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, and Spanish. A Chinese translation of Bioethics and Secular Humanism appeared in 1998. His most recent book is The Foundations of Christian Bioethics (Salem, MA: Scrivener Publishing, 2000), which has appeared in Greek, Portuguese, and Romanian. His recent edited volumes include Global Bioethics: The Collapse of Consensus (Scrivener Publishing, 2006), The Philosophy of Medicine Reborn (Notre Dame, 2008), Innovation and the Pharmaceutical Industry (Scrivener Publishing, 2008), and Bioethics Critically Reconsidered (Dordrecht: Springer, 2012).